UC BERKELEY EXTENSION GUIDE TO THE TRANSCRIPT OF RECORD

This transcript comprises a record of all academic and continuing education unit (CEU) coursework taken by the student through University of California, Berkeley, Extension (UC Berkeley Extension). Credit is shown in semester units. (Exceptions: Courses between September 1966 and August 1983, and some correspondence courses, show quarter units). One semester unit equals 15 hours of classroom instruction.

Course Numbers

UC Berkeley Extension course numbers are classified as follows:

- 1-99: Lower-division undergraduate
- 100-199: Upper-division undergraduate
- 200-299: Graduate division
- 300-399: Professional courses in Education
- 400-499: Professional courses in other departments
- 800-899: Noncredit courses

Course Number Prefixes

- X: Course offered only through UC Berkeley Extension
- XB: Extension course that is equivalent to a UC Berkeley campus course with the same content, title, number and credit value offered to UC Berkeley students
- XI, XE, XR, XD, XSB, XSD, XSC: Extension courses with the same content, title, number and credit value offered to students at the respective UC campuses
- XBW: Extension online course that is equivalent to a UC Berkeley campus course with the same content, title, number and credit value offered to UC Berkeley students
- UCB: UC Berkeley course for credit on a nonmatriculation basis through Concurrent Enrollment
- CEU: 1 CEU (continuing education unit) equals 10 hours of instruction

Semester Unit Equivalents in Quarter Units

Semester units	1	2	3	4
Quarter units	1.5	3	4.5	6

Course Repetition

In all instances, repeating a course requires approval by the UC Berkeley Extension dean. Without this approval, a repeated course will not be included in the grade-point average. A passing grade in the repeated course will be accepted in satisfaction of unit requirements for a professional certificate or specialized program of study.

Applicability to a Degree Program

UC Berkeley Extension does not grant degrees, but many Extension courses carry credit that may be applied toward a degree elsewhere or toward completion of an Extension professional certificate or specialized program of study.

In many cases, credit earned in UC Berkeley Extension undergraduate courses numbered XI-X199 may be applied toward bachelor's degrees at the University of California by students entering the University. In most cases, courses numbered XBI-XB199 and XBW1-XBW199 also may be applied toward bachelor's degrees at the University of California.

Grading System

- A Excellent
- B Good
- C Fair
- D Barely Passed
- F Failed
- P Passed (grade C-minus or better)
- NP Not Passed
- S Satisfactory
- U Unsatisfactory
- I Incomplete (work is satisfactory but incomplete for good cause)
- IP In Progress
- NC Not for Credit
- NR No Grade Reported
- R Repeatable
- Q Quarter Units
- W Withdraw Without Academic Penalty

Work is shown in semester units unless otherwise noted. Other notations that may appear include:

Concurrent Enrollment, a program whereby students may enroll in certain regular UC Berkeley campus courses through UC Berkeley Extension.

*Fall Program for Freshmen, a joint program whereby students admitted for spring semester at UC Berkeley are allowed to complete fall semester requirements through UC Berkeley Extension.

Independent Study, courses completed through correspondence. All other policies and regulations regarding grades and record keeping apply.

Applicability to Continuing Education Requirements

Many UC Berkeley Extension courses have been approved to meet specific continuing education requirements for professional licensure. When applicable, this approval is indicated in the catalog course description with one of the following abbreviations:

ABIH: Courses qualify for Certification Maintenance (CM) points for Certified Industrial Hygienists (CIHs) who are certified by the American Board of Industrial Hygiene.

APA: Courses qualify for American Psychological Association (APA) continuing education credit for psychologists.

BBS, LCSW/MFT: Courses qualify for continuing education for licensed clinical social workers (LCSWs) and marriage and family therapists (MFTs) as required by the California Board of Behavioral Sciences (PCE 1505).

BRN: Courses qualify for Board of Registered Nursing continuing education credit (provider 00226).

CAADAC: Courses qualify for continuing education for Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselors through the California Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors (CAADAC, provider 4C-99-416-0803).

CFP: UC Berkeley Extension's Professional Sequence in Personal Financial Planning is accredited and registered with the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards. This registration allows those who have successfully completed the UC Berkeley Extension program and who wish to obtain the Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®) certification to take the national CFP Certification Examination.

CPA: Courses are appropriate for continuing professional education toward renewal of Certified Public Accountant (CPA) licensure.

CREB: Courses apply toward mandatory educational requirements for obtaining the California Real Estate Broker (CREB) license.

DS: Courses meet requirements for Designated Subjects Adult and Career Technical Education Teaching Credentials for adults.

MCLE: Courses conform to the standards for approved education criteria prescribed by the rules and regulations of the State Bar of California governing Minimum Continuing Legal Education (MCLE).

RYAN: Courses may be used to fulfill requirements for the Ryan Multiple and/or Single Subject Credential for teachers on direct application to the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

The awarding of UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies academic credit for courses is approved in accordance with the regulations of the Academic Senate of the University of California. UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies operates on a quarter system and all credit is awarded in quarter units. Each quarter unit equates to two thirds of a semester unit and approximately ten hours of direct faculty instruction.

ACCREDITATION

UC San Diego is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC). UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies is accredited by WSCUC through the University. All courses and certificate programs offered by UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies have been developed and are administered in accordance with Extended Studies policy, the regulations of the Academic Senate of the University of California, and WSCUC standards.

FERPA NOTICE

This educational record is subject to the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, and subsequent amendments. It is furnished for official use only and may not be released to or assessed by outside agencies or third parties without the written consent of the student identified by this record.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS (CEU)

The CEU is a uniform measure of a non-credit continuing education learning experience. Grades are not issued in accordance with the standards established by the International Association of Continuing Education and Training. One CEU is awarded for every ten contact hours of classroom instruction.

GRADE POINT AVERAGING

The current grading system became effective in the spring quarter, 2001. Prior to this term, grade point averages were not calculated.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies is not a degree-granting institution. The school or college in which students are registered determines the applicability of UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies courses to their degree programs. Students must check with the receiving institution for transferability.

COURSE PREFIXES

Course prefixes identify the type of course completed. Courses completed prior to fall 1994 do not include a prefix.

X – UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies courses not equivalent to UC San Diego courses, but which may have credit value.

XSD – Accepted for unit and subject credit for all requirements of specific University of California departments, schools, and colleges, as well as for general University requirements, if the corresponding regular course on the corresponding University campus is normally accepted.

XSDC – Offered as part of the concurrent enrollment program. Concurrent courses shall be offered and supervised by appropriate University departments, and credit is accepted toward unit and subject degree requirements. For courses to apply toward a higher education degree, credit is subject to the approval and regulations of the campus Graduate Council concerned.

COURSE LEVELS

1-199 – Courses structured and approved in accordance with the requirements for lower division (1-99) and upper division (100-199) UC San Diego level courses.

200-299 – Graduate-level courses offered as part of the University Concurrent Enrollment program.

300-399 – Professional credit-bearing courses in the field of education, specially designed for teachers and prospective teachers seeking credentials, authorizations, or other types of certifications in the State of California through the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC). Major emphasis is on pedagogy, teaching methods and materials, and curriculum design. Credit in these courses is designed for professional upgrading, in-service education requirements, and basic and specialized credentials in the State of California; it may also lead to the award of a formal certificate by UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies. Credit may be applied toward an academic degree; preliminary teacher credentialing program in California, or requirements for licensure in other states, subject to the approval of the receiving institution(s). This course level is presented as the 30000 level in Extended Studies promotional material and My Extension.

400-499 – Post-Baccalaureate, professional-level, credit-bearing courses designed to provide opportunities for professional advancement and enable the general public to gain knowledge in various academic fields. Credit earned in these courses may lead to the award of a formal certificate by UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies or be applied toward an academic degree or professional credential, subject to the approval of the receiving institution.

800-899 – Non-credit, Continuing Education Unit (CEU) bearing courses designed for students seeking hours of instruction for career placement or advancement, or the opportunity to develop cultural, intellectual, and civic interests. This course level is presented as the 80000 level in Extended Studies promotional materials and My Extension.

900-999 – Non-credit-bearing, precollege-level courses designated to provide an opportunity for students to explore academic interests or prepare for college admission. Courses may be transferable for secondary school credit at the discretion of the receiving institution. This course level is presented as the 90000 level in Extended Studies promotional materials and My Extension.
